Welcome to downtown Kelowna! This charming home is located on the best block in Kelowna and in the middle of it all. With Wilson ave on one side and Cawston and the bike path on the other, this home could not be better located. You are a short walk to shopping, coffee shops, breweries, wineries, the arts and cultural district and of course, the beach. The property is zoned RU6 and is 50ft wide and 116.5ft deep. The main floor is completely open with the kitchen, dining and living room all open to each other. There is an accessible bathroom and pantry off of the kitchen as well. The 2 main bedrooms are also on the main level and the upstairs loft features another large bedroom. The home is filled with artistic character and has been well-loved over the years. The yard boasts perennials, vegetable gardens and a patio in the back as well as the front. Get in to see this one quick before it is too late! (id:3942)
