If having your own custom built home is part of your future plans consider this beautiful view lot that we have for sale! Located in the popular residential subdivision of Hawkview Estates, this .19 of an acre lot is surrounded by newer homes and offers an incredible view of the Creston Valley and the mountains beyond. The lot would lend itself to a walk out basement style of floor plan however other options would work as well. Hawkview Estates is conveniently situated just a short drive from restaurants, downtown shopping, schools and other amenities within the Creston Valley. Call your REALTOR for all the details, with underground powerlines you have stunning views, in fact many details of this development were well thought out in the planning stages to provide you with a premium residential location for your new home. Come take a look and imagine yourself living here (id:42016)
