Enjoy the convenient location of this fully finished two story family home - it is walking distance to schools, shopping, downtown and so much more! If you have been searching for a home that works for your growing family look no farther - this 4 bedroom, 3 bathroom home may be it. With features like hardwood flooring, an open concept living room and kitchen, main floor laundry, a dining room that could easily convert to a family room and more. The large primary bedroom with full ensuite on the upper floor of the home boasts large windows for natural light. There are 3 more bedrooms upstairs though the layout is flexible if you need a home office or upstairs den. Outside you'll love the wrap around verandah, the fenced yard complete with small dog run, and an attached garage. This home was constructed in 2013 for the Owners personal use. They have loved it all this time but now it's your turn to make it your own. If you have elementary aged children you could not ask for a better scenario, this property is right across the street from Adam Robertson Elementary School. Call your REALTOR to book a viewing and imagine yourself living here. (id:42016)
